

Requirements for remote appearances in Civil, Family, Probate, or Juvenile Dependency proceedings

Effective January 1, 2022, CCP 367.75

Effective January 1, 2022, if you are scheduled to appear in court in a Civil, Family, Probate, or Juvenile Dependency matter and would like to appear remotely via Zoom, you must comply with California Rules of Court, rule 3.672. Requirements and timelines for filing a Notice of Remote Appearance are outlined in CRC 3.672.

Civil, Family, Probate – Non-Evidentiary Proceedings

Any party wishing to appear remotely in the above case types must file with the court, in writing and notice all parties of your intent to appear remotely for the duration of the case. Form RA-010 Notice of Remote Appearance must be used for this purpose.

Evidentiary Proceedings Opposition to Remote Appearance

In response to a notice of remote appearance in an evidentiary proceeding, a party may make a showing to the court as to why a remote appearance or testimony should not be allowed, by serving and filing an opposition. Form RA-015 Opposition to Remote Proceeding at Evidentiary Hearing or Trial must be used for this purpose.

Juvenile Dependency Proceedings

Any party wishing to appear remotely in a Juvenile Dependency proceeding must get permission from the court in advance of the hearing. Form RA-025 Request to Appear Remotely – Juvenile Dependency must be used for this purpose. A person opposing a remote appearance in a Juvenile Dependency matter should serve and file form RA-030 Request to Compel Physical Presence – Juvenile Dependency.

Small Claims Court Trials

For remote appearances in Small Claims Court Trials – if you wish to submit exhibits for trial, you must mail a copy of your exhibits to the court and to the other party(s) at least five days prior to the hearing date. Please include your case number on each exhibit. Exhibits should be mailed to the court department where your case will be heard.

Zoom Link Information for Remote Appearance

If a party intends to appear remotely via Zoom and has complied with the requirements outlined above, the Zoom link can be found here on the court's website. Under Daily Calendars, click the day and location of your hearing, and the link will be provided in red at the bottom of the calendar.

Prior to your hearing date, please review the Rules and Responsibilities on the court's website.

Non-Civil Case Types

The Inyo Superior Court does not allow remote appearances in Criminal or Juvenile Delinquency matters.
